Lord Heavenly Father, this is the day - this is the day You have made. We come here this morning thankful of Your protection of the night and mindful of all Your blessings. We thank You for the gift of life itself. Accept our gratitude.

We come here this morning because of people - all kinds of people who surround us everywhere. There are so many - and their various needs are so great.

We ask You to be with us and to guide us as we consider the many and important matters that come before us. We pray this prayer so often that we sometimes take it for granted and maybe don't even hear the words. But, Lord, we mean it. We want to remember that we are first of all Your servants and also the servants of the people who have put us here. Help us to be unselfish and farseeing in our decisions. Help us in the cause of making life and the pursuit of happiness a just and joyful thing for all people.

This is the day that You have made and given to us, Lord. Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Let it be a good day, in Jesus' name. Amen.

On motion of Senator Aikin and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
